The IMO International Maritime Law Institute Official Electronic Newsletter (Vol. 3, Issue No. 42) 16 May 2006

NEW IMLI WEBSITE LAUNCHED BY THE IMO SECRETARY – GENERAL
(WWW.IMLI.ORG)

On the occasion of the IMLI Graduation, the IMO Secretary – General Mr. Efthimos Mitropoulos officially launched the new (updated) IMLI website, which provides relevant information about the Institute, its activities, academic programmes and student life at IMLI.

Mr. Efthimios Mitropoulos (Secretary - General, IMO) launching the new IMLI website.

The IMLI website also contains information about the Institute's Governing Board, its resident faculty, administrative staff and visiting fellows. Prospective students will find there all necessary information for their application to the Institute's programmes and courses. Other practical information includes travel and visa arrangements, facilities available at the Institute and within University of Malta campus and life in Malta in general.

The new IMLI website focuses also on the Institute`s Library – renowned for its extensive resources related to international maritime law. The user can access collection of legal documents related to international maritime law and an expanded list of maritime law links. It further contains an electronic archive of all IMLI publications: newsletters, e-newsletters and brochures including the latest 2005-2006 Global Directory and 2006 Graduation Brochure.

An innovation of the new website is that the user can also access a video presentation of the Institute and a photo gallery, which both offer an insight of the Institute`s academic activities and social life. The website also contains testimonials on the Institute`s work from eminent personalities, IMLI graduates, students and visiting fellows.

Ms. Anamaria Pantea (Coordinator, Administration and Finance) has been leading the redesign project over the past nine months. She said:

“The IMLI internet environment gets a radical overhaul, marked by an improved appearance, accessibility and ease in navigation. The redesigned website is part of an ongoing project aimed at improving and updating the Institute`s e-presence. While endeavoring to provide you with the latest information on the Institute`s activities, I would be grateful to receive your comments, suggestions and opinions as to the further development of our website.”
