

The credit subjects and their respective weighting are the following:

1. Advanced Diploma in International Maritime Law (Public)

1.1 Compulsory credits

- (i) Introduction to public international law (circa 25 lectures)
 - overall credit weighting: 10 credits
- (ii) The law of international organizations (circa 8 lectures)
 - overall credit weighting: 3 credits

1.2 Optional credits

- (i) The law of the sea: general introduction (circa 3 lectures)
 - overall credit weighting: 2 credits
- (ii) Coastal waters: the territorial sea and internal waters (circa 3 lectures)
 - overall credit weighting: 2 credits
- (iii) Coastal waters: the contiguous zone (circa 2 lectures)
 - overall credit weighting: 2 credits
- (iv) Coastal waters: archipelagic States and archipelagic waters (circa 3 lectures)
 - overall credit weighting: 2 credits
- (v) International straits (circa 2 lectures)
 - overall credit weighting: 2 credits
- (vi) The continental shelf (circa 3 lectures)
 - overall credit weighting: 2 credits
- (vii) The exclusive economic zone (circa 5 lectures)
 - overall credit weighting: 2 credits
- (viii) The high seas (circa 4 lectures)
 - overall credit weighting: 2 credits
- (ix) Fisheries (circa 5 lectures)
 - overall credit weighting: 2 credits
- (x) Land-locked States and geographically-disadvantaged States (circa 2 lectures)
 - overall credit weighting: 2 credits
- (xi) Regime of islands (circa 1 lecture)
 - overall credit weighting: 2 credits
- (xii) Enclosed and semi-enclosed seas (circa 1 lecture)
 - overall credit weighting: 2 credits

- (xiii) The deep seabed (circa 3 lectures)
 - overall credit weighting: 2 credits
- (xiv) Marine scientific research and development and transfer of marine technology (circa 3 lectures)
 - overall credit weighting: 2 credits
- (xv) Delimitation of maritime boundaries (circa 12 lectures)
 - overall credit weighting: 4 credits
- (xvi) International maritime security law (circa 10 lectures)¹
 - overall credit weighting: 4 credits
- (xvii) Settlement of disputes (circa 4 lectures)
 - overall credit weighting: 2 credits

2. Advanced Diploma in International Maritime Law (Private)

2.1 Compulsory credits

- (i) Introduction to shipping law (circa 25 lectures)
 - overall credit weighting: 10 credits
- (ii) Nationality, registration and ownership of ships (circa 8 lectures)
 - overall credit weighting: 3 credits

2.2 Optional credits

- (i) International trade law (circa 8 lectures)
 - overall credit weighting: 3 credits
- (ii) Proprietary interests in ships – a comparative analysis (circa 13 lectures)
 - overall credit weighting: 5 credits
- (iii) Security rights in ships (circa 15 lectures)
 - overall credit weighting: 6 credits
- (iv) Enforcement of maritime claims (circa 13 lectures)
 - overall credit weighting: 5 credits
- (v) Carriage of goods by sea (circa 40 lectures)
 - overall credit weighting: 10 credits
- (vi) Carriage of passengers and their luggage by sea (circa 4 lectures)
 - overall credit weighting: 2 credits

¹ Students attending the public strand credit of international maritime security law can benefit from the lectures of the private strand credit of international maritime security law.

- (vii) Maritime labour law (circa 6 lectures)
 - overall credit weighting: 3 credits
- (viii) Law of maritime safety (circa 18 lectures)
 - overall credit weighting: 7 credits
- (ix) International maritime security law (circa 10 lectures)²
 - overall credit weighting: 4 credits
- (x) Law of marine collisions (circa 4 lectures)
 - overall credit weighting: 2 credits
- (xi) Law of salvage and wreck (circa 10 lectures)
 - overall credit weighting: 4 credits
- (xii) Law of general average (circa 5 lectures)
 - overall credit weighting: 2 credits
- (xiii) Law of towage (circa 5 lectures)
 - overall credit weighting: 2 credits
- (xiv) Law of marine pilotage (circa 4 lectures)
 - overall credit weighting: 2 credits
- (xv) Global limitation of liability (circa 5 lectures)
 - overall credit weighting: 2 credits
- (xvi) Law of marine insurance (circa 18 lectures)
 - overall credit weighting: 7 credits
- (xvii) Marine environmental law (circa 23 lectures)
 - overall credit weighting: 9 credits
- (xvii) Private international maritime law (circa 5 lectures)
 - overall credit weighting: 2 credits

² Students attending the private strand credit of international maritime security law can benefit from the lectures of the public strand credit of international maritime security law.