

14th IFLOS Summer Academy to be held in Hamburg between 9 August and 4 September 2020

The Director of IMLI would like to inform all IMLI Alumni that the International Foundation for the Law of the Sea (IFLOS), a partner institution of IMLI, is now accepting applications into its 14th Summer Academy at the International Tribunal for the Law of the Sea, Hamburg.

The IFLOS Summer Academy is a Centre of excellence for studies of both International Law of the Sea and Maritime Law and includes related topics of economic and natural sciences. It brings together a prestigious faculty from among the judges of the Tribunal, professors and professionals from the maritime field with a dedicated group of some 40 highly-motivated participants from around the world.

The electronic applications and registration will expire on 31 March 2020 and documents by mail will be accepted until 10 April 2020.

Admission and Scholarship requirements and other details of interest are available at <http://www.iflos.org/summer-academy/overview/>.

On behalf of the Foundation, we attach the 2020 Summer Academy Flyer and Poster, for ease of reference.
