MALTA PROUD OF HOSTING IMLI

During the recent 28th Regular Session of the IMO Assembly, the Hon. Joe Mizzi (Minister for Transport and Infrastructure of the Government of Malta) confirmed the Malta Government's pledge of continued support to the International Maritime Law Institute that Malta proudly hosts.

In his address to the Assembly, Mr. Mizzi, a former seafarer himself, paid tribute to the IMO and its Member States for their unstinted dedication and collective work to promote, inter alia, safety of life at sea and the welfare of seafarers.

Mr. Mizzi also reiterated the support of the Government of Malta to the work of the IMO. He acknowledged that the IMO is the organization best suited to ensure that the delicate balance of practicality and effectiveness of the global shipping industry is sustained.

H.E. Mr. Koji Sekimizu (IMO Secretary-General) with Hon. Joe Mizzi (Minister for Transport and Infrastructure of the Government of Malta)

IMLI is appreciative of the continuous support it receives from the Government of Malta and is proud to record that the Institute, since its establishment in Malta in 1988, has through its training and academic activities contributed significantly in fulfilling the goals of the IMO.
