NIGERIAN GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS VISIT IMLI

A six-member delegation from the Nigeria Immigration Service, comprising of Abubakar Lawal Adamu, Adeuyi Funke Cecilia, Anyalechi Modupe Oshoke, Mohammed Safiya Kudu, Alabrah Andi Emomotimi and Giwa Maroof Abdu, visited the IMO International Maritime Law Institute on 28 September 2017.

The Nigerian Delegation with Mrs. Pauline Dunoyer (centre), Project Officer, MIEUX - Migration EU eXpertise, International Centre for Migration Policy Development

The delegation's visit to IMLI was part of its Five-day Study Visit to Malta on Maritime Border Management and Irregular and Mixed Migration under the aegis of MIEUX - Migration EU eXpertise, supported by the European Union (EU) and implemented by the International Centre for Migration Policy Development (ICMPD).

During the visit, the delegation was briefed about the Institute, its mandate, activities and academic programmes. The delegation was informed about the Institute's long-standing cooperation with the Government of Nigeria which entrusted the training in international maritime law of many senior government officials, the majority of whom came from the Nigeria Maritime and Safety Administration (NIMASA) and the Nigeria Ports Authority (NPA). The delegation was also informed about the valuable role Mr. Louis Mbanefo (a Nigerian renown lawyer, and member of the IMLI Governing Board) played towards the development of the Institute, more particularly the development of the Institute's curriculum.

The delegation was accompanied to the Institute by Mrs. Pauline Dunoyer, Project Officer, MIEUX - Migration EU eXpertise.
