In a short speech delivered on behalf of her colleagues, Ms. Thandi Rosalea McAllister (Guyana) thanked Professor Attard for the exceptional care and love he has for them not just as the Institute's Director and exceptional Professor, but as a father figure. The Class, she said, has a rare admiration for Professor Attard's wisdom, wealth of knowledge and experience. She prayed for his continuous good health and personal well-being for the benefit of IMLI and the entire maritime community.

Professor Attard expressed his appreciation to the Class for the pleasant surprise. He encouraged the students to continue with their good work and to fly high the IMLI flag wherever they are.
