

IMLI APPOINTS NIPPON FOUNDATION LECTURER IN INTERNATIONAL MARITIME LAW

The IMO International Maritime Law Institute (IMLI) is pleased to announce the appointment of Dr. Ángeles Jiménez (Spain) as The Nippon Foundation Lecturer in International Maritime Law.

Dr. Ángeles Jiménez (Spain), The Nippon Foundation Lecturer in International Maritime Law

Dr. Ángeles Jiménez was awarded a degree in Law and International Relations by Universidad Pontificia Comillas ICADE, Spain in 2011. She obtained a Master of Laws (LL.M.) Degree, with distinction, in European Law from the Université Libre de Bruxelles, Belgium in 2012. Upon her return to Spain, in 2012, she was admitted to the Madrid Bar Association and worked as a European Law practitioner in Spain and Belgium, respectively.

In 2017, Dr. Jiménez was awarded the Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.) Degree in Law, cum laude, by the Universidad de Jaén, Spain. Her thesis is entitled: ‘The Extension of the Continental Shelf within the Framework of UNCLOS – Special Reference to Spain.’ Prior to joining IMLI, Dr. Jiménez was engaged at the University of Jaén as International Project Manager where she was responsible for managing international research projects. Dr. Jiménez is the author of a number of articles and has delivered presentations in English, Spanish and French.

On joining the Institute, Dr. Jiménez said:

'I am confident that lecturing at IMLI will be an enriching experience. I will teach and learn and make my best efforts to train a new generation of specialists in international maritime law.'
