INTERNATIONAL SHIPPING LAW EXPERT LECTURES AT IMLI

Mr. Andrew Taylor (International Shipping Law Expert) visited the IMO International Maritime Law Institute (IMLI) between 26 and 30 November 2018 and delivered a course of lectures on 'Carriage of Goods by Sea' to the IMLI Class of 2018-2019.

Mr. Andrew Taylor (International Shipping Law Expert) with the IMLI Class of 2018-2019

During his lectures, Mr. Taylor discussed topics such as charterparties agreements and related documents used in connection with contracts for the international carriage of goods by sea. Further, Mr. Taylor explained in detail, the meaning of and differentiation between shippers, charterers, carriers and consignees. He also provided a brief overview of the international rules governing carriage of goods by sea.

Mr. Andrew Taylor presenting his lectures

The students responded very well to Mr. Taylor's lectures due to his method of teaching where practical examples were used to illustrate fundamental principles. His lectures, therefore, helped the students understand this very crucial subject of international maritime transport law.

Mr. Andrew Taylor was the senior partner in Richards Butler from 2000-2005 shortly before it merged with Reed Smith where he remains a partner. He is one of the Co-Authors of the textbook "Voyage Charters" which is part of the Lloyd's Shipping Library. He is the Secretary and Treasurer of the British Maritime Association and served two terms as an Executive Councilor of CMI.
