Prof. Attard recalled that 8 lawyers from Saudi Arabia were trained at IMLI and obtained IMLI's LL.M. Degree in International Maritime Law. He explained to the delegation the role of IMLI in the training of international maritime law. He also spoke of the importance IMLI gives to legislation drafting, particularly with respect to the incorporation of International Treaties into domestic law.

H.E. Dr. Sadakah Yahia Fadil thanked Professor Attard and the students for their welcome and undertook to examine the possibility of closer relations with IMLI.
