

SLOVENIAN AMBASSADOR TO MALTA VISITS IMLI

H.E. Mr. Iztok Mirošič, the newly appointed Slovenian Ambassador to Malta, paid an official visit the IMO International Maritime Law Institute on Friday, 24 September.

H.E. Mr. Iztok Mirošič (Slovenian Ambassador to Malta) and Professor David Attard (IMLI Director)

The Ambassador was welcomed by IMLI Director, Professor David Attard who congratulated the Ambassador on his appointment and expressed his great pleasure at his visit. Professor Attard stated that IMLI has strong links with Slovenia and recalled that since the inception of the Institute four Slovenian lawyers have graduated from its LL.M. programme.

Ambassador Mirošić started his diplomatic career at the Slovenian Department of Foreign Affairs in 1995. He has served as Advisor to the Government, Ambassador to the United Kingdom and Northern Ireland, and also as acting Director-General for European Affairs and bilateral political relations. He has been special coordinator for relations and border issues with the Republic of Croatia.
