25th SESSION OF THE IMLI GOVERNING BOARD HELD AT THE IMO HEADQUARTERS, LONDON

IMLI Governing Board met at the IMO Headquarters in London, on 15 April 2011, to hold its 25th Session presided by H.E. Mr. Efthimios Mitropoulos, Secretary-General of IMO and Chairman of the IMLI Governing Board.

At its 25th Session, the Governing Board noted that the Institute continues to enjoy an excellent academic reputation, as evidenced by the outstanding performance of its graduates who hold high level posts within their national administration and at international level. The Board commended the Director, faculty and staff of IMLI for their continuous efforts to maintain the Institute's high academic standards and expressed the appreciation to all the visiting lecturers who taught at IMLI in the past academic year.

H.E. Mr. Efthimios Mitropoulos (Secretary-General of IMO and Chairman of the IMLI Governing Board) with members of the Board during the Board's 25th Session held at the IMO Headquarters in London, on 15 April 2011

It recorded the donors whose contributions, either by general donations to the Institute's funds or by the donation of scholarships, have been of substantive assistance to the sustainability and development of IMLI. Their contributions have secured sufficient income to cover the Institute's budget for the current financial year.

The Governing Board noted, with appreciation, that funds from IMO's Integrated Technical Co-operation Programme, authorized by the IMO Council. It further acknowledged the support provided by The Nippon Foundation; the European Union through the "Euromed Cooperation on Maritime Safety and Prevention of Pollution from Ships – SAFEMED" Project; the Indian Ocean Commission through "GEF-WIO Marine Highway Development and Coastal and Marine Contamination Prevention" Project; the Lloyd's Register Educational Trust; the Government of Switzerland; the Government of Malta; the Comité Maritime International (CMI) Charitable Trust; the Neptune Orient Lines of Singapore; and the Sea Pine Tree Foundation of the Republic of Korea.
