THE LLOYD'S REGISTER EDUCATIONAL TRUST CONTINUES TO SUPPORT IMLI'S WORK

IMLI notes with pride that The Lloyd's Register Educational Trust (The LRET) continues to support IMLI and its work by providing funding in the form of scholarships for the training at the Institute of three deserving government nominated lawyers. To date The LRET has generously contributed to the funding of seventeen lawyers from developing countries who have enrolled in IMLI's LL.M. programme. The following three lawyers have been awarded LRET scholarships for the academic year 2011/2012.

	NAME	COUNTRY	OCCUPATION	NOMINATING AUTHORITY
1.	Mrs. Alexandra Deirdre Maycock	the Bahamas	Counsel, Office of the Attorney-General	Office of the Attorney-General
2.	Ms. Angelica Jaraie Ramat Jalloh	Sierra Leone	Barrister and Solicitor	Ministry of Foreign Affairs and International Cooperation
3.	Mr. Adnan Haj Omar	Syria	Lawyer	Syrian Bar Association

The LRET was established in 2004 by the Lloyd's Register Group as a separate charity to fund advances in transportation, science, engineering and technology education, training and research worldwide for the benefit of all. It funds activities in four categories, namely pre-university education, university education, vocational training and professional development and research.

Mr. Franklin (Director of The LRET) has observed: “Our on-going support for selected students at IMLI is a very important activity for us and underlines our strong commitment to help the maritime industry worldwide to receive justice and good governance.”
