IOI COURSE PARTICIPANTS VISIT IMLI

IOI students receive a briefing on the role of IMLI in the training of lawyers in the field of International Maritime Law.

Students from the International Ocean Institute (IOI), headquartered in Malta, recently visited IMLI where a reception was held to mark the occasion. The students are currently attending IOI's Training Programme on "Regional Ocean Governance for Mediterranean and Eastern European Countries". Dr. Awni Behnam (President of IOI) accompanied the students.

Mr. Norman Martinez, IMLI Lecturer, welcomed Dr. Behnam and the IOI students and, in remarks he delivered, Dr. Behnam stressed the importance of the continued interaction between two institutions of like interests and paid tribute to the leadership of IMLI.

A tour of IMLI's library facilities and a briefing on IMLI's role in the training of lawyers in the field of International Maritime Law was conducted in order to give the IOI students an idea on what academic resources were available to assist them in their studies.

The visit gave IMLI students the opportunity to interact with the IOI students and discuss matters of common interest regarding sustainable uses of the oceans.
