In his welcome address, he stated that the Institute has always enjoyed a very cordial relationship with the United States of America. There are two Embassy personnel who are currently enrolled at the Institute and a number of very distinguished visiting professors from the US regularly lecture at IMLI.

Mrs. Perry responded by saying how impressed she was to meet such an international class and looked forward to closer ties with Texan universities.

She was accompanied by Mr. Brian Newby, General Counsel for the Office of the Governor, who expressed great interest in the work being undertaken at IMLI. He agreed to link up IMLI with the Houston University which has a large maritime law faculty.
