Certificate of Appreciation from the Courts of Justice of Thailand

We quote the text of the letter received from Mr. Phinij Susaoraj, Secretary-General, Office of the Judiciary, Thailand:

“On behalf of the Office of the Judiciary of Thailand, I wish to take this opportunity to express our sincere thanks and gratefulness to your organization for the cordial partnership and the kind support you have extended to us.

“In this occasion of the commemoration of the Courts of Justice Day on 21 April 2007, it is my great pleasure and honor to inform you that the Honorable Chief Justice Panya Thanomrod, the President of the Supreme Court, will present “Certificate of Appreciation” to your organization for significant contributions to promote cooperation in legal education and training and enhance academic development to the Thai Judiciary. Please, therefore, accept the enclosed Certificate of Appreciation as an expression of our gratitude.

“I look forward to continuing the mutual cooperation with your organization.”
