

Circulated in more than 145 States to personalities in the legal and maritime professions

The IMO International Maritime Law Institute Official Electronic Newsletter (Vol.18, Issue No.1) 9 October 2020

IMLI'S 32ND ACADEMIC YEAR TO COMMENCE ON MONDAY

On Monday, 12 October 2020 the IMO International Maritime Law Institute (IMLI) will welcome its 32nd generation of lawyers and maritime professionals. The academic year 2020-2021 will witness 52 students from 36 countries attending its various programmes, which will commence online. Students hailing from the Democratic Republic of Congo, Sweden, Paraguay and Republic of Korea will represent their countries for the first time in any of the Institute's programmes.

Introductory meeting with students of the IMLI Class of 2020-2021

This academic year records IMLI's 32nd year of excellence, serving the interest of IMO Member States and of the international community at large. Since its inception, the Institute has trained nearly 1,100 students from 147 States and territories. This network of IMLI graduates is contributing to the fulfilment of IMO goals. It is expected that the students of this academic year will also, upon completion of their studies, provide immediate and valuable contributions to their respective countries and the international community, as experts, especially, in the post COVID-19 era.

The Director, the faculty and staff of the Institute would like to warmly welcome the IMLI Class of 2020-2021 and wish them a successful academic year.

---

\ If you do not want to receive IMLI e-News in future, please return this message to the above address with request to DELETE in the subject field.*

** For further information please contact Ms. Ramat Jalloh (Editor, IMLI e-News) at publications@imli.org