

LAW OF TREATIES PROGRAMME OFFERED AT IMLI

To promote capacity-building in the Law of Treaties, IMLI, in cooperation with Queen Mary University of London, is offering online an intensive programme on the subject. The first part of the Programme will provide a comprehensive course on Introduction to the Law of Treaties consisting of fourteen contact hours which will cover the major aspects of the Law of Treaties. This part of the Programme, which will commence on 30 November 2020 at 13:10 hours Malta time, will also prepare the ground for a better understanding of the second part of the Programme which will consist of Specialist Seminars on the Law of Treaties, co-ordinated by academics from Queen Mary University of London. These Specialist Seminars will be delivered over fourteen contact hours to be held in January 2021.

This Programme is addressed to any person who needs to understand the intricacies of Law of Treaties and the rights and obligations of States Parties under the same. For these reasons, the Programme would be most suitable to representative of States to international organizations, foreign relations experts, legal officers of maritime administrations, and maritime consultants. The Programme would also prove beneficial to law students who wish to pursue a career in the field.

A certificate of attendance will be issued upon completion of the Programme.

To apply, please contact by not later than 27 November 2020 admissions@imli.org.
