THIRD ANNUAL COURSE ON THE LAW OF PORTS TO COMMENCE AT IMLI

ONLINE COURSE

IMO INTERNATIONAL MARITIME ORGANIZATION

LAW OF PORTS COURSE 2022

IMO International Maritime Law Institute

OVER 30 YEARS SERVING THE RULE OF INTERNATIONAL MARITIME LAW

The IMO International Maritime Law Institute (IMLI) wishes to bring to your attention its third annual Course on the Law of Ports. This Course will commence in February 2022.

The Course on the Law of Ports will emphasize the importance of the work of the IMO for the efficient management of ports and the effective implementation by States of their obligations acquired under international treaties. It will also address many aspects of port operations, as well as numerous areas covered by IMO conventions and prescriptions which are of vital importance to the Law of Ports, including, security, safety, environmental protection, and facilitation.

The Course will also emphasize the role of ports in the development of infrastructure which is vital to the economic growth of developing countries, especially Small Island Developing States.

In the light of its comprehensive coverage, this Course will be of immense benefit to professionals involved in the maritime industry, including port managers and officers, legal drafters, port and ship operators, as well as lawyers and maritime practitioners. The Course would also be of interest to law students who wish to pursue a career in the field.

At the end of the Course, a certificate of participation will be issued to those who attend 80% of the lectures.

To apply, please contact the Course Coordinator by no later than 25 January 2022 at murat.sumer@imli.org.
