

IMLI e-NEWS

THE IMO INTERNATIONAL MARITIME LAW INSTITUTE OFFICIAL ELECTRONIC NEWSLETTER

Circulated in more than 150 States

IMLI DIRECTOR ADDRESSES THE INTERNATIONAL MARITIME AND TRANSPORT LAW COURSE HELD IN CROATIA

Professor Norman A. Martínez Gutiérrez (Director, IMLI) delivered a Master Class entitled "Limitation of Liability for Maritime Claims" during the International Maritime and Transport Law Course "Transport Law de Lege Ferenda 2022", together with Professor Iva Tuhtan Grgić (Associate Professor, Faculty of Law, University of Rijeka, Croatia) and Professor Zuzanna Peplowska-Dabrowska (Assistant Professor, Commercial and Maritime Law Department, Law and Administration Faculty, Nicolaus Copernicus University in Toruń, Poland), held in September at the Inter-University Centre in Dubrovnik, Croatia. This international event was organized by the Croatian Maritime Law Association.

Professor Norman A. Martínez Gutiérrez (Director, IMLI) addressing the Course Participants

The Director noted with great pleasure that three IMLI Graduates, Dr. Mitja Grbec (Slovenia), Dr. Adriana Padovan (Croatia) and Ms. Maja Radunovic (Montenegro), also delivered lectures throughout the course.

The Director expressed his gratitude to the event organizers for inviting him to address such a prestigious initiative, especially to Professor Igor Vio (Secretary-General, Croatian Maritime Law Association) who has a long-standing relationship with IMLI as one of its distinguished Visiting Fellows.

From left to right: Professor Norman A. Martínez Gutiérrez (Director, IMLI), Professor Iva Tuhtan Grgić (Associate Professor, Faculty of Law, University of Rijeka, Croatia), Professor Zuzanna Peplowska-Dabrowska (Assistant Professor, Commercial and Maritime Law Department, Law and Administration Faculty, Nicolaus Copernicus University in Toruń, Poland) and Professor Igor Vio (Secretary-General, Croatian Maritime Law Association)