International Labour Standards Department, ILO)*

Professor Norman Martinez (Professor, IMLI) delivered the welcoming remarks and introduced Ms. Vacotto to the participants. In addition to the IMLI students, the Course was also attended by over 35 external international participants hailing from a wide range of countries. Ms. Vacotto's lecture on "Seafarers' Right MLC 2006: A Panoramic View". was followed by several interesting and thought provoking questions that were adequately and skillfully addressed by her.

FELLOWSHIPS FOR THE IMLI MASTER PROGRAMMES

The Institute has launched its admissions process for the academic year 2022-2023. It is noteworthy that a number of donors have agreed to provide full funding for chosen candidates, if they meet their selection criteria. Fifty percent of the places available are reserved for deserving women candidates.

For more information, please contact Ms. Elda Kazara-Belja at admissions@imli.org. We look forward to receiving applications from all over the world and continue with our capacity-building mission in international maritime law.
