IMLI'S 34TH ACADEMIC YEAR TO COMMENCE ON MONDAY

On Monday, 10 October 2022 the IMO International Maritime Law Institute (IMLI) will commence its academic year by welcoming its 34th generation of lawyers and maritime professionals. Recording the largest class ever, 61 students from 38 countries will embark on an exciting academic journey through their participation in the Institute's various programmes.

Students of IMLI Class 2021-2022

This academic year records IMLI's 34th year of excellence, serving the interests of IMO Member States and of the international community at large. Since its inception, over 1,050 maritime leaders from 151 countries and territories have graduated from the Institute establishing a formidable network of IMLI graduates who are contributing to the fulfillment of IMO goals.

It is expected that the students of this academic year will also, upon completion of their studies, provide immediate and valuable contributions to their respective countries and the international maritime community.
