THE IMLI COURSE ON THE LAW OF PORTS

The Institute is pleased to inform its esteemed readers that the annual IMLI Course on the Law of Ports will commence on Friday, 9 February 2024.

As the gateways to international trade, ports provide a supportive structure for economic activities and development. Consequently, they are subject to extensive global regulations, which reflect numerous IMO treaty instruments.

The IMLI Course has been praised as an important capacity-building tool in the field as it highlights the significance of the IMO's role in the efficient management of ports and the importance of effective implementation of international treaty obligations by States. Many participants have benefited from this unique training initiative which is being offered again in 2024.

For more information and to apply, please contact by not later than 2 February 2024 admissions@imli.org.
