IMLI OPENS THE APPLICATION PROCESS TO ITS MASTER'S PROGRAMMES

Spread the news! IMLI's application process for the admission of qualified candidates to the Master's programmes scheduled to commence in October 2024 is now open.

A number of fellowships are currently available for deserving candidates. There are also a limited number of fellowships for the Maritime Legal English Course that will be delivered between July and September 2024 so as to enhance the English language skills of these candidates. 50 per cent of the places to the Institute's programmes are reserved for female candidates.

Applications must be received at the Institute by 17 February 2024.

Further information about the Institute and its courses is available on our website at <https://imli.org/>; or by contacting the IMLI Admissions Officer at admissions@imli.org.
