IMLI COURSE ON INTERNATIONAL MARITIME SECURITY LAW

IMLI is pleased to announce the launching of its 6th Annual Course on International Maritime Security Law. This Course is aimed at equipping professionals with the knowledge and skills necessary to address complex maritime security challenges. This intensive Course has been praised for its comprehensive contents and eminent experts. The Course provides an in-depth analysis of traditional and emerging maritime security threats, including piracy, maritime terrorism, cybersecurity, illegal trafficking, dark fleet, fraudulent registration, and enforcement mechanisms.

The Institute records with pride that Mr. Hiroyuki Yamada (Director, IMO Maritime Safety Division) will inaugurate this Course on 3 April 2025. The Course is tailored for officials, especially maritime administrators, diplomats, naval and coast guard officers, law enforcement agents, prosecutors, and professionals seeking to enhance their legal expertise in maritime security.

Delivered in a hybrid format, the Course provides its participants flexibility to attend sessions online or in person.

If you wish to be part of this unique journey of learning, exchanging experiences and information, as well as networking, apply by not later than 31 March 2025 to admissions@imli.org.
