IMLI MOURNS THE PASSING OF DR. AGATHA JAMES ANDRIES

The IMLI family mourns the death of one of its own, Dr. Agatha James Andries from St. Kitts & Nevis. Dr. James Andries, a Graduate of the IMLI Class of 2008-2009, passed away on 10 June 2025. The news of her passing was received by the Director and staff with great sadness.

Dr. James Andries was a dedicated public servant who served in both the St. Kitts and Nevis and Anguilla Police Forces before becoming a lawyer and an advocate for children and women.

She held multiple academic degrees, and was called to the Bar in 2007. She also served as a pastor, motivational speaker, and was a devoted mother and grandmother.

The IMLI Director and Staff wishes to express their heartfelt condolences for this very sad loss to her family and to the entities in which she diligently served.
