The Director informed the students that IMLI was set up to train maritime experts on the whole spectrum of international maritime law and on the incorporation and effective implementation of IMO treaties and rules into their domestic legislation.

He highlighted the Institute's commitment to contribute to the realization of IMO's objectives and the goals of the international community for a sustainable and vibrant maritime sector.

Professor Martínez Gutiérrez stated that he was confident that the students' efforts coupled with the Institute's commitment to deliver the highest standard of training will make this Academic Year a very successful and rewarding one.

At the conclusion of the Director's Address, Ms. Kazara-Belja invited the students to introduce themselves to the Director, Staff of the Institute and their Colleagues. For the academic year 2024-2025, IMLI welcomes in-situ, 65 Students from 38 countries in all of its programmes.
