

IMLI ALERT

22/2025-2026

SCAM ALERT

The Institute would like to bring to the attention of all IMLI graduates that a fraudulent email, appearing to have been sent by the IMO Secretary-General, Mr. Arsenio Domínguez, is currently being circulated among IMLI graduates. The email in question is requesting donations for an individual who is allegedly in need of a heart transplant.

All recipients are strongly advised to:

- Not reply to the email.
- Not send any money or disclose any personal, financial, or banking information.

Please exercise extreme caution and disregard the email.

IMLI is taking this opportunity to alert all graduates to help prevent anyone from falling victim to this scam.

